

“ON” Framework 11

Get Illogical

What the framework states:

Make random statements that may seem out of place or illogical to a conversation, yet Expresses Your Personality, Opinions, and Interests

What this means:

When talking to a girl, instead of trying to keep to a logical framework following a linear conversation path, dispense statements that convey personality, lead the vibe, and demonstrate a relaxed confidence in who you are.

Big Ideas:

A Statement Leads the vibe, and Expresses Your Personality, Opinions, and Interests

Its Bold and Projects Confidence

It Encourages Her to Express Her Personality

You Can Just Say Illogical Shit. No One is really paying attention. And the vibe is always more important than what comes out of your mouth.

Get in the Habit of Making Statements, about yourself, and about her.

Every time You Make a Statement About Yourself, You're Giving Her Permission to Express

Get the Vibe Right, and Nothing Else
Matters

All People Want to Talk About is Stupid Fun Shit

Example:

If you are talking to a girl and feel the conversation is taking a turn towards the logical, blurt something out completely unexpected.

Random Things I've Said to Girls

I hate old people. I know one day I'll be old, blah blah.

I want to be rich. I know its not PC or whatever to admit that and I should like talk about passion or whatever, but honestly, I really like having nice shit. You don't strike me as materialistic.

I'm obsessed with corn dogs. Like if someone tells me a diner has a good corn dog, I'll like do a road trip. I don't take you as the type of girl who likes corn dogs.

The Reality of What I Just Said.

I just said random statements about myself to keep things from getting too much toward a logical level.

Homework:

Begin Leading With Statements About Yourself

Next time you to break the “logic trap” of a conversation blurt out the first random statement that comes to mind. Don't censor yourself, let it become a skill to “think outloud”.
